Templates for each shift to try brute-force decryption (i.e. trying all of the possible options)
An extra shift 14 template is included as this is the shift used to encrypt the message in the accompanying slides—if more than one student is working with this shift, you will get the answer faster.